

Haywood County Public Library

Donation Policy

Haywood County Public Library accepts donations of books, CDs, and other similar items that are in good condition. The Library cannot accept encyclopedias, textbooks, or computer books that are more than two (2) years old. Donations become the property of the Library. If donated items are not added to the collection, they will be given to the Friends of the Library to be sold in the annual book sale.

The Haywood County Public Library will accept donations at any time during operating hours. Donator is responsible for bringing items into the library – carts can be provided for convenience.

Tax donation receipts will be provided by the Library. Donor is responsible for counting their donations and filling out their own form. Please be aware that library staff cannot assign a dollar value to your donation.

Thank you for your support of your library. We appreciate your donations!
